"Pennsy," Deck-Deep, Survives Near-Sinking

Seamen work furiously to empty the hold of the USS Pennsylvania and keep her afloat after a torpedo hit Aug. 12 off Okinawa opened a hole in her side, letting in enough water to settle her almost deck-level deep (note water line). Hoses from gun barrels lead to flooded compartments. This was the first major damage sustained by the battleship since Pearl Harbor. (Navy Photo)

The World Today . . .

Far East Situation

By DeWITT MacKENZIE,

MackArthur's GRIST-MILL is grinding finer and faster—an encouraging circumstance, since studied peace is vital.

The situation in East Asia as a whole is dangerous—and Japan is the focal point of the infection. It will require both adroit and quick handling to forestall an epidemic of discontent, and anti-western animosity, in the various countries. For while Japan is the main source of the evil which has descended upon that part of the world, yet because the Allies are now in control they will get the blame if the disorganization isn't righted speedily.

In short, the Western Allies are on trial in a big way in the Orient. Anyone who has studied the Far East at first hand knows that it long has harbored much suspicion of occidental motives. This is a mighty danger which either will be eliminated or accentuated as Allied efforts at rehabilitation—economic, political and social—succeed or falter.

So it is good to get General MacArthur's report that the occupation of Japan is proceeding smoothly. One notes in this connection that it's only a month since Tokyo surrendered—a short time to get a tight grip on a country which had some 3,000,000 crack troops still under arms, and the military elite eager anxious for further trouble.

While the occupation was said to be going well in the Mikado's home domains, reports from other quarters.

There nothing that compares with a county fair!

And this year's Columbiana county fair—marking 100 years of annual county fairs in this county—is no exception.

An attractive program, arranged by the Columbiana County Agricultural society, is on tap for fair-goers at the Lisbon fairgrounds today, Friday and Saturday.

Yesterday's program, the first actual operational day of the fair, met with the approval of about 1,000 grandstanders in the afternoon and slightly more than that in the evening.

A horse pulling contest which tested the powers of lightweight animals, less than 3,000 pounds, was staged at 9:30 a. m. yesterday with ten teams competing.

Fair Secretary J. Howard Sinclair ran the event in front of the stands and reported that all ten teams pulled more than 65,000 pounds of pig iron.

A pulling contest is slated today for heavyweights and another four-horse event will be staged Saturday morning.

The afternoon program yesterday included three harness races, three heats to a race. A varied field was presented for the fans and state operated pari-mutuel windows, under state supervision, were available to all.

Velma Dale, owned by W. L. Barnett of Warren, won the 2:22 pace event, taking three heats. Gypsy Prince, owned and driven by J. R. Rick, New Castle, Pa., won the 2:18 trot with three firsts in the heats. The 2:12 pace went to Vanity Law, owned by Rick, also with three firsts.

Times were fairly good and the track was in excellent condition. Feature of the day's program, to be repeated each evening of the fair, was the antique parade which led the cattle and farm equipment parades.

Scheduled for 7 p. m., the parade moved right on the dot, led by Fair Board President L. R. Cobbs of Salem.

The Salem High school band followed Cobbs and led the antique section while the Lisbon High school band headed the farm equipment display.

In the long procession were a collection of antique vehicles—symbolic of the history of transportation in the county—early American times went down to the present day.

PERMIT JAPS TO ROUND UP WAR GUILTY

Eighth Army Headquarters Expects Nipponese To Act Quickly

(By Associated Press)
TOKYO, Sept. 13.—Eighth army headquarters empowered the Japanese government today to round up the remaining Japanese on General MacArthur's "wanted" list.

No time limit was set but it was indicated that the government would have to show some progress within two days or the privilege would be withdrawn.

The government had asked permission to handle further arrests after Hideki Tojo, deposed wartime dictator, shot himself two days ago while American officers hammered at his door. Now in "satisfactory" condition and able to talk with correspondents today, Tojo had headed MacArthur's list of those sought for questioning about war crimes.

Japan today reported formally that its Imperial headquarters had been abolished in compliance with MacArthur's orders, and MacArthur announced that Gen. Walter Krueger of the Sixth army and Vice Adm. Harry Hill of the Fifth Amphibious force would enter Sasebo, Kyushu, Sept. 29 to prepare for its occupation two days later.

Offers No Defense

Tojo offered no defense of his militarist government which launched the Pearl Harbor attack, while Prince Fumimaro Konoye, present vice premier, blamed militarists like Tojo for his own failure to avert war.

Konoye, interviewed by Associated Press Correspondent Russell Brines, said he tried vainly to meet President Roosevelt in the summer of 1941 and believed he could have avoided the war by doing so, but the military and Japan's international reputation "as a liar" blocked the meeting.

The Japanese government long have had a reputation as liars," he told Brines, "because they were unable to control Japanese militarists in the field, or often didn't know what the militarists were doing."

Prince Konoye called on General MacArthur today, Allied headquarters announced without amplification.

Japan's business leaders emphasized in an interview today that both the militarists and the industrialists knew before surrender that the war was lost—before the first atomic bomb dropped, but that militarists wouldn't admit it and "we industrialists were too cowardly to speak out." The nation, they said, was industrially paralyzed and on the verge of starvation.

As Tojo, raised to a semi-sitting position, at his first food since his attempted suicide Tuesday, others who had played major roles with him since the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor either were being rounded up or were doing a more effective job of self-elimination.

The navy minister in Tojo's infamous "Pearl Harbor cabinet," Adm. Shigetaro Shimada, surrendered quietly at his home to an American officer, saying he had contemplated suicide but changed his mind. He face possible court-martial as a war criminal.

But the man whom the Japanese war machine had planned to lead the defense of Honshu against American invasion, Field Marshal Gen. Sugiyama, killed himself with a pistol shot.

Ten Ohio Cities Join In Tiffin Celebration

TIFFIN, Sept. 13.—Groups from ten northwest Ohio cities joined Tiffin tonight in a Victory day celebration, which began with a military parade and was followed by a victory program on public square. Gov. Frank J. Lausche was the principal speaker.

The parade was composed of five bands, Veterans of foreign Wars posts from Sandusky, Fostoria, Willard, Fremont, Upper Sandusky, Port Clinton, Bucyrus and Tiffin; Seneca county Legionnaires and Ohio State guard companies from Findlay, Fremont, Fostoria, Marion, Bucyrus, Toledo and Tiffin.

The girls, who have completed nine months of preliminary training, were congratulated by Walter Bailey, hospital superintendent, who also discussed plans for future cooperation of the hospital with the students. He was introduced by Miss Kathryn Kromer, head of the nursing school.

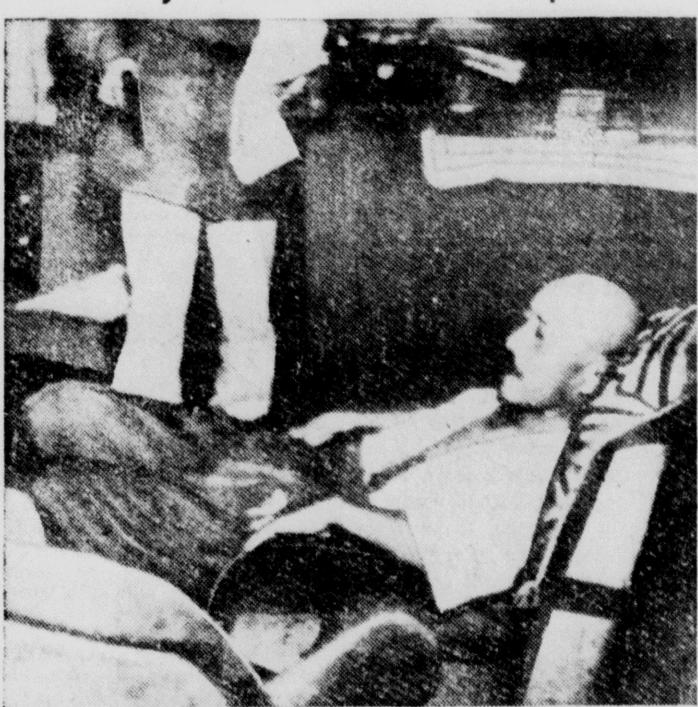

Approximately 60 guests, parents and members of the hospital board were present at the capping ceremony and enjoyed refreshments and a social period which followed.

Miss Virginia Barges, pianist, played the processional and recessional marches for the rites.

The girls who received their caps are: Mary Jane Sprout, Dorothy Greenwalt and Marian Wilson of Salem, Delores Kluth and Kathryn Paddock of Olmstead Falls, Eleanor Barkley of Sebring, Olivian Vitalari of Alliance, Gayle White of Canfield and Jane McCarthy of East Palestine.

Newly-Uniformed Salem Band To Join In Game Pageantry

Pageantry, as well as football, will be the attraction at Reilly stadium Friday night when Salem High school opens its season against a powerful Cleveland Rhodes High school.

Salem's 70-piece marching band—clad in bright new red and gold uniforms will fill the halftime bill along with Cleveland's 85-piece marching unit—the largest in the Cleveland district.

Presentation of the SHS Football Girl, Geraldine Ellis, her two assistants, Lois Johnson and Joyce Wicksmith, and the coaches of the two schools will be a pre-game feature with the Salem band taking part.

Head Drum Major Tom Williams and his five assistants, Jean Redinger, Barbara Lane, Billie Ann Finley and Joy Clesman, will lead the Quaker procession.

Director C. M. Brautigam, faced once again with breaking in more than a third of the band as new marchers, has been forced to limit his first-game plans to routine drilling, as a performance at the fair school opening and distribution of new uniforms has occupied most of the unit's time this week.

The new outfits—a bright red like the former suits—are trimmed in bright gold with gold citation cords over the shoulder. The hats are of the stiff-crown variety, trimmed in gold and topped by a large black pom-pom.

Black Sam Brown belts complete the uniforms.

The Salem director plans an "R" formation before the Cleveland stands, a block formation before Salem's as the band plays "Poet, Peasant and Light Cavalrymen," a novelty number which met with great success last year.

Cleveland's marching unit is rated as the third best in the city and is the largest unit there. An excellent musical organization, it is also noted for clever, snappy field work.

The Rhodes band will be the largest that has appeared here for a number of years.

Game time is 7:45.

The owners from Middletown came after the car today. The youth will be sent to juvenile court in Hamilton county.

End of Shoe Rationing Expected By October 1

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Shoe rationing may end Oct. 1. It will if top officials of the War Production board follow recommendations of the agency's leather bureau. It's the job of that bureau to know the shoe situation thoroughly.

A decision will be made in the next week or so, after conferences between WPB Chairman J. A. Krug and OPA Administrator Chester Bowles.

OPA shoe officials are not expected to voice any strenuous objections to the WPB proposal, although Oct. 15 and Nov. 1 have been mentioned more frequently within OPA as likely dates for ending the program.

RATION BOARD CLOSINGS DUE

Salem, Other Columbiana County Offices Will Be Dissolved Soon

Closing of rationing boards in Salem, East Palestine, Lisbon and East Liverpool, appeared certain by Dec. 1, according to a centralization plan announced today by the district Office of Price Administration.

The overall plan will reduce the number of operating boards from 84 to 24, the announcement said.

Stark and Richland county boards are to be the first effected and nearly all boards will be closed by Dec. 1, the announcement said.

No details on where a centralized office would be located in Columbiana county were given, but the notice said all of the above offices would be shut down and the boards dissolved.

Effective dates for consolidation in the other 18 counties of this Office of Price Administration district have not been definitely set, according to William J. Kennedy, acting OPA district director, but the boards affected and the new locations have been determined in all but a few instances.

All of the 18 counties outside Cuyahoga county will have only one board each instead of the two to eight boards which have been in operation the last three years.

12 Price Violation Suits Filed By OPA

Intensifying its drive to hold the price line and prevent post-war inflation, the District Office of Price Administration today filed 12 suits in federal and municipal courts in Cleveland charging over-ceiling sales of eggs, poultry and fish, and other violations of price regulations.

Mabel McCartney and Harry Woodbine, poultry auctioneers, R. D. 4, Western Reserve road, Salem, are charged with failure to keep records on their sales.

One slaughterer is named, Joe Pitocica, 1401 Oak st., Youngstown. The government charges that for May and June of this year Pitocica exceeded his legal slaughtering quota by 15,960 pounds and that he sold meat without keeping the required records and without having the meat graded in accordance with the regulation.

A charge of selling fish at over-the-ceiling price is made against Dave Berkowitz, 338 E. Federal st., Youngstown. Damages of $5,288.10 are asked.

Three egg dealers are charged with over-ceiling sales of their products. Those named are Harry and George Frerch, partners in the Frerch Market, Niles; Joe Kirke, Berea, and John Henry, proprietor of the John Henry Produce Co., Canton. Two of the suits charge over-ceiling sales of poultry and failure to keep the required records.

The two named are Anthony G. Ramphos, United Poultry Market, Canton, and Hannah M. and Urvin T. Kahler, partners in Kahler and Kahler, R. D. 3, Canton.

Peter Richey of Burghill, Trumbull county, is charged with purchases and sales of eggs and poultry at prices in excess of the legal maximum and with failure to keep records.

700,000 MEN DISCHARGED SINCE V-DAY

Demobilization Is Running Ahead Of Schedule, Senate Is Told

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The army expects to release an additional 1,300,000 men by Christmas, a War department spokesman told senators today.

With approximately 700,000 already released since V-E day, this will mean a reduction of 2,000,000 in Army strength since Germany's defeat.

May Gen. S. G. Henry, assistant chief of staff, told the senate military committee that demobilization was running ahead of schedule with an estimated 400,000 being released in September instead of a planned 250,000.

By January, he testified, discharges will reach a rate of 672,000 monthly, or 22,400 daily.

Some In 45 Days

Approximately 258,000 men now in the U. S. who are eligible for discharge but caught behind a jam in the demobilization "pipeline" will be released within 45 days, Henry said, as the result of a temporary increase in the number of separation centers.

Henry said that a total of 1,400,000 men are now in the "pipeline" headed for separation centers and as soon as 900,000 are released, the discharge point score will be reduced from the present figure of 80 for enlisted men.

Henry mentioned no new figure for December, but Senator Edwin C. Johnson, D-Colo., told reporters he was advised that prospects now are that the rate will go to 800,000 a month by that date.

Johnson said he got his information from Brig. Gen. B. C. Caffey, who was present at the hearing. Caffey explained to a reporter later that the separation centers would have a "capacity" of 800,000 men a month by December, but that due to a shipping bottleneck in bringing men back from overseas, it was probable that only about 600,000 men per month actually would be processed through the centers at the peak of activity.

700,000 Since V-E Day

Since demobilization began on V-E Day, Henry told the committee, the Army has released 700,000 men and women.

He disclosed for the first time that Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, had ordered back from Europe combat-hardened brigadier generals to take command of the separation centers.

"Gen. Marshall wanted men who led fighting troops to take charge of the centers," Henry said.

District Baptist Rally Is Scheduled For Alliance

Brass Tackers

The first meeting of the new council of foreign ministers in London will draw no more than routine attention. It is typical of our tendency to take diplomacy for granted.

The fact is that this agency established at Potsdam for handling postwar problems is the first postwar attempt to get down to brass tacks. The five ministers meeting in London are not concerned with high-flown generalities, but with commonplace specifications for settling the scores of an international conflict. They will attempt to write the terms of a peace that will protect the world from further war. They will untangle the intricate snarls of hate that have bedeviled European diplomats. Vastly more depends upon the "Little Five" than depended on the Big Three.

They are trying a new procedure. In one sense, they are a nucleus of international government. After World War I, peace terms were drawn up quickly, almost casually, by heads of states. This time, the council of foreign ministers will prepare terms deliberately after full consultation with all parties concerned. In the case of Germany, they will do nothing until a qualified German government has emerged from the political ruins left by Hitler.

It is expected that the ministers and their advisers will be in continuous session; completion of their work might require years. The United States will be represented, of course, by James F. Byrnes. It now is plain why President Truman chose Mr. Byrnes as his secretary of state. He had to have someone who could be trusted implicitly to handle one of the most important assignments ever made by a chief executive. Mr. Byrnes is a specialist in the exercise of delegated authority. His countrymen pray for his wisdom as one of the working architects of the brave new world men have earned with their wartime sacrifices.

Payment In Resources

A proposal by the Senate's small business surplus war property committee that this government's lend-lease debtors might balance their accounts with shipments of bauxite (aluminum) makes sense and no doubt will be rejected for that reason.

Aside from dollar accounts, the cost of the war to the United States is represented by a prodigious sacrifice of natural resources. We bled our rich country to buy victory. The war boom represents only our own money share in the expenditure of this irreplaceable wealth. Iron ore, timber, steel scrap, oil and other basic resources have been distributed over the earth.

Many of the beneficiaries of this wholesale distribution of American wealth have vast natural resources which they have not been able to exploit because of their economic backwardness. Russia is an example. Russia has more resources within its war-expanded borders than any other country. The British Empire has similarly vast natural resources, despite its financial straits.

For debtors to protest that they are unable to balance dollar accounts when they could balance accounts with resources is to forget the original theory of lend-lease. The late Mr. Roosevelt said it was like lending a neighbor a garden hose to put out a fire. The owner of the hose, he said, would not demand the price he paid for it, but he would want it back, or if it was ruined, he would expect a replacement. That's all any American is thinking about—some kind of replacement for the national wealth that was loaned to the good neighbors.

Distribution

In his frequent reappearances, Ole Debbi Distribution never has been more surprising than he is in Canada's announcement that meat rationing has gone into effect there as a postwar measure.

In the United States, which resented Canada's lack of meat rationing after it was discontinued March 1, 1944, the Canadian announcement finds Americans preparing to break off meat rationing the first of next month. The tables are turned, and no doubt there now will be the ironic spectacle of Canadians flocking across the border to buy unrationed meat in the United States. Undoubtedly Canadians will grumble as sourly as Americans did when they were living under rationing and Dominion consumers apparently had never heard of the war. There isn't any sense to it, there never is to distribution mishaps.

What happened on March 1, 1944, according to the official explanation, was a surplus of Canadian meat waiting to be shipped to Europe. Canada's food distribution is relatively simple. Rationing had set aside more meat for overseas shipment than there were ships to carry it. Therefore, meat rationing was suspended to keep the surplus from being wasted. Today, on the other hand, ships are available. There is a shortage for shipment abroad, instead of a surplus. Hence, rationing. Hence, the shoe is on the other foot, in relation to the United States. Hence, the probability that Canadians soon will be pointing to the United States for having things so much easier and practically making no sacrifices at all.

Short Suit

American occupation troops in Germany, say some of the more pessimistic accounts, are confused and restless. The troops are not sure what they are supposed to be doing and even less sure about the means of getting it done. Moreover, they don't like the idea of remaining in Germany. They want to come home.

It is too soon for such stories to come from Japan, but they will be along presently. The omen for successful occupation of Germany and Japan by United States troops is bad. Congressmen report their heaviest mail in years on the subject of demobilization. There will be pressure at home and abroad for speedy liquidation of the occupation projects.

Combined with the pressure will be the fact that civil administration is not one of America's long suits. We have learned in Italy about our shortcomings. We apparently are learning in Germany. We will learn in Japan. The reflection is not on our good intentions, but on a well known circumstance of national political organization.

Many if the nation's largest cities are administered by political machines, rather than civil servants. In most of the lesser cities, on the other hand, civil government is administered by some of the most haphazard methods conceivable in a progressive country. Smooth-running, efficient government simply is not part of the American tradition—as will be demonstrated vividly wherever amateurs try their hands at it abroad.

—And Suddenly It's Fall

The still popular song that tells us, "... suddenly it's spring!" jumps at the conclusion of the wrong season.

In actual experience, it is never winter that is terminated abruptly by the advent of spring. Winter has a way of lingering on until its welcome is worn out, sometimes even into the latter half of May. Summer, on the other hand, is capable of being here today and gone tomorrow, and "suddenly it's fall!"

Realization that the change has occurred bursts on a misty morning in mid-September when the sun is trying to bore through the clamminess of a heavy dew. The dead leaves in the gutter become ominous. So does the remembrance of the early twilight the night before. A school bell rings. The newspaper on the table is folded open at the picture of a football player. The birds are hushed, except for the belligerent jays. The air is too chilly for comfort at breakfast, and the windows are pulled down after the summer's accumulation of litter has been moved off the sills.

Suddenly it's fall... and day after tomorrow there will be a killing frost, followed soon afterward by sleet and snow.

The Stars Say

For Friday, September 14

A DAY of dramatic and probably breath-taking events is the forecast based on important lunar and mutual aspects. It is possible that this commotion may find its locale in the home, where social, domestic and sentimental attachments may incite festivities, parties, or other gay functions.

It is notable that elopements or other unconventional affairs come into the limelight under such aspects, in instances with some disruptive or devastating angles. Prudence and discretion are enjoined.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of the romantic, dramatic and thrilling, with sudden developments in the realm of the home, social events or possibly festivities or functions celebrating engagements, weddings, or births, although frequently elopements or unconventional and sensational romances come under this unorthodox planetary combination.

A degree of precaution and prudence is recommended lest there be unhappy regrets, estrangements or sudden separations. In more commonplace connections, there may be lack of encouragement from higher-ups, hence caution and vigilance.

A child born on this day may have exceptional talents with a flair for dramatic, inventive and romantic adventure.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Treatment of Ankle Sprains

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHEN a person sprains his ankle not only does he suffer pain and inconvenience, but one or both of two things may happen. There may be complete or partial tearing of the ligaments which hold the bones together, or there may be the formation of a blood clot.

By means of a complete examination, according to Doctor John M. Wright of the Medical Corps of the United States Naval Reserve, and the taking of X-rays, it is possible to tell just about what type of damage to the ankle joint has occurred.

Ankle Cast

If there has been a complete tearing of the ligaments, the best treatment, Doctor Wright thinks, is to have the patient wear a cast over the ankle for at least six weeks. This cast is of the type which allows the patient to be up and about.

A complete rupture of the ligaments on the outer side of the ankle is not unusual in cases of sprained ankle. This causes swelling, muscle spasm, and pain upon movement. To make a diagnosis it is suggested that the patient be put to sleep. Then the foot can be moved so as to stretch these ligaments on the outer side of the ankle.

Ligament Ruptured

If the ligaments are ruptured, a certain one of the bones in the ankle will get out of its normal position. An X-ray of the foot in this position will show the displacement of the ankle bone. If there is not a great deal of swelling present, it often may be possible to make a diagnosis merely by feeling the ankle.

If, because of improper treatment, the torn ligaments do not heal completely, a person may develop the chronic or recurrent sprained ankle. For this reason, in treating torn ligaments, it is suggested that a substance called procaine be injected into the ankle, the part then to be massaged to reduce the swelling, and a non-padded cast applied. Following this, the patient is advised to walk immediately. After six weeks the cast is removed and an ankle support made of adhesive plaster is applied and worn for two additional weeks.

If a complete rupture of the ligaments has not occurred, Doctor Wright believes that the use of a pressure bandage, that is, a tight bandage, is advisable. This will limit the hemorrhage or bleeding into the tissues. The injection of procaine into the under areas, together with the use of massage, will relieve the pain and help get rid of any blood clot that may be present.

The relief of pain of simple ankle sprains may be accomplished by the use of contrast baths.

That is, the ankle is put into hot water for one-half minute, then cold water for one-half minute, this being repeated several times. Massage is also helpful. Altogether the contrast baths and massage should last about 20 minutes.

Prompt and proper treatment of ankle sprains will help prevent permanent injuries.

Dr. Bundesen will answer letters containing medical questions only through his column. Address your inquiries to Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

GRANDMA IN
HER CHAIRShe's as Lively as a Youngster—
Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous wastes to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sensations shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Pearl Harbor Blow Termed 'Stupid' By German Naval Aide

By DUANE HENNESSY

KARUZAWA, Japan, Sept. 13.—The Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor was "utterly stupid," the German naval attaché told the Nipponese when he finally learned of it hours afterward.

"I didn't know of the attack until I heard about it on the radio," the attaché, Arm. Paul Wenner, said today in an interview.

Wenner identified himself as former commander of the pocket Deutschland when it seized the American freighter City of Flint in 1939. He came to Japan in 1940 as Pearl Harbor aide.

"The Japanese asked me what I thought of the strike and I told them it was a great mistake. Perhaps they crippled the American fleet, but I would either have invaded Hawaii or done nothing. They never intended to invade."

Wenner said he realized the manner of the attack gave the United States a terrific propaganda. "While Germany was an ally of Japan, we had the most difficult time getting cooperation," Wenner said. "They were suspicious of all white people and it took a long time to get their confidence. Even then I always felt they were keeping something from me. It was most difficult to learn their secret intentions."

Wenner, who came to Japan five years ago, said Germany had been anxious to get Japan into the war principally "because Germany lacked sea power and to be assisted by a first class sea power seemed wonderful."

New Bill Would Aid Small Towns' Growth

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Congress will be asked shortly to give a government boost to the industrial growth of small towns and depressed rural areas.

The intent is to put federal agencies and funds to work in establishing and expanding business activity in regions where farm work alone cannot take care of job needs.
Chairman Bailey (D-NC) of the senate commerce committee said he expects to introduce the measure—tentatively titled "the industrialization of under-developed areas act of 1945"—in a few days.
The plan calls for an initial outlay of $5,000,000 to get the work rolling.

Secretary of Commerce Wallace was identified as a particularly ardent sponsor.

Court Upholds Mother Who Spanked Her Son

DES MOINES, Sept. 13.—A mother insisted in municipal court that it was her duty to whip her child "for telling a fib" and the court gave a $10 suspended fine to a neighbor who interfered.

The mother, Mrs. James Easley, accused Eugene Johnson of disturbing the peace by shouting through her window while she was whipping her son.

"It's about time somebody regarded a mother who has the courage to punish her child," asserted Assistant County Attorney Anthony T. Renda. "With all this juvenile delinquency it's a good thing to let the country know about a woman who uses corporal punishment on her children."

COUNTY FAIR

phaeton (1895), a doctor's speed buggy (1875), a town cab (1900), a Victorian carriage (1898) and a tallyho wagon (1910) were among the unusual old-time features.

Riders In Costume

All were manned by appropriate riders, dressed to fit their times. A prairie schooner, a host of mounted scouts, an Indian group and "Gay Nineties" women, riding side-saddle, rounded out the all-period parade.

Large selections of farm equipment and an impressive display of top-ranking cattle and stock finished off the evening's opening event.

Following the parade a theatrical show by Mrs. Kline's performers entertained the audience and then the fair fans were treated to an exceptionally large and attractive horse and pet show, staged by the Jack Single troupe.

Besides the crowd which nearly filled the grandstands during the evening, a good-sized throng milled up and down the midway and inspected the cattle barns and 4-H club displays.

Racing is scheduled today and Saturday, while Friday will be 4-H club day.

• THE THEATER

Eddie Bracken, who co-stars with Veronica Lake and Diana Lynn in "Out of This World," showing at the State theater today through Saturday, plays the role of an idolized crooner who's voice has that familiar Crosby ring.

"Oregon Trail," the suspense-filled Western, starring Sunset Carson and Peggy Stewart, and the mystery, "The Phantom of 42nd Street," with Dave O'Brien and Kay Aldridge, are the hits today through Saturday at the Grand.

The World Today

ters weren't so optimistic—a situation which was to be expected in view of the widespread distribution of Japanese fighting strength throughout China, Indonesia and many islands of the Pacific. The Japanese high command in China says it may take several months to repatriate the million Jap soldiers there. And Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten says the Japs in Southeast Asia "are finding it very hard to accept defeat and may try to wriggle out of the terms of surrender." He has ordered his troops to crack down on "obstinacy, impudence or non-cooperation."

Continued smooth progress in occupation of the Japanese homeland is bound to have a good effect on the Japs in other countries.

and glass was broken up to 12 miles.

About 20 well built structures of masonry and steel remain standing but the interiors are gutted.

Farrell said he was unable to comment on Japanese reports of 60,000 to 100,000 killed and 75,000 to 200,000 wounded. He said it was probable the conservative figures were more nearly correct.

Of reports that Japanese who arrived in the area 10 hours after the explosion felt ill effects, Farrell said a Japanese official on Sept. 9 reported that not one had died and none affected seriously.

55,000 Buildings Burned

Farrell said destructiveness of the bomb exceeded scientists' expectations.

Farrell declined to comment on at what altitudes the bomb exploded. He described the heat generated as "intense—so great it was able to start fires."

Asked by the Japanese if the bomb released poison gases, the mission declared flatly "no poison gases were released."

These figures were given by Hiroshima officials of the destruction: 55,000 buildings totally burned; 2,300 half burned; 6,800 totally destroyed by blast; 3,800 half destroyed by blast.

Of 9,000 Japanese soldiers in Hiroshima, 4,000, including the commanding general and his entire staff, were killed; 3,000 were wounded and 2,000 escaped.

"Confident in their ability to play is all this 1945 Salem team needs to develop to become a first class ball club," says Coach Ben Barrett on the eve of the opening of the season at Reilly stadium against a heavier, more experienced Cleveland Rhodes Ram outfit.

Tomorrow at 7:45 p. m. the curtain rises on the gridiron season in Salem and one of the largest first-game throngs ever seen here is expected to be on hand for the occasion.

The Barrettmen can only be rated one way—in the underdog class—as they face the more formidable Rhodes lineup, but the Salem Quaker mentor is convinced that his team has "it," if they can only assure themselves they are as good as the next fellow.

Perhaps the outcome of the contest here tomorrow will reveal whether or not the first game "jitters" have the Quakers behind the eight ball.

Perhaps it won't. There is only one way to find out and that is to be among the crowd at Reilly.

Lineup A Guess

Coach Barrett released his tentative starting lineup today. He indicated that it was only a "guess" and might be switched before the start of the game. He also pointed out that without question—regard less of the course of the game—a lot more candidates will see action.

The charges of Coach Warren Vanorsdall are on the heavy side. The line will preponderately outweigh the Quakers in every spot but one, and that is Louis Juliano's tackle job. Juliano is 183 and big enough to shove with the largest.

The backfield for the Rams includes the lightest man on both starting groups. Hank Reis, 138, fills the quarterback position and according to reports does it well.

Others Will Play

The Salem mentor said such men as Jim Laughlin, quarterback, Ray Snyder at end, Dick Gottschling at end, Jack Crawford in the halfback post, Aubrey Cain at guard and tackle Back Bob Hodge Fullback Marion Fiani, Lineman Bob Sprout and Jack Wilson will all probably get into the fray.

Others who have shown possibilities in practice will have a chance at play, if the occasion arises and substituting seems the answer to mistakes on the field.

Salem all in all, will place on the field one of the greenest teams fielded here for years. They are light, shifty and fast and are working well under the Barrett T-formation, interspersed with the old wingback plays.

"Our chances are a big question mark in my mind," the coach says, "until I can see how we go under fire. Tomorrow is the night, after that we can say more definitely this way or that."

CLEVELAND, Sept. 13.—Allmen Transfers, percentage champions, won the Northeastern Ohio Soft-ball championship last night by defeating Lorain's Yenko Markets 4 to 1 in the final of the elimination series playoffs.

BIG TEN TRAINING TEMPO STEPPED UP

Conference Teams Brush Up Workouts as Big Games Approach

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The tempo of training was stepped up today as Western Conference football teams headed down the conditioning stretch for their season openers, most of which will be a week from Saturday.

The first full-time scrimmages were held by most clubs last Saturday. Coaches, still trying to weed out first teams from the maze of inexperienced players with whom most are confronted, sent their charges through additional hard workouts yesterday.

All conference clubs admit they have plenty of strength in the untired Freshman ranks, but would like to see the yearlings in more rough competition before assigning them to jobs alongside more experienced players.

Coach Carroll Widdoes of the Conference champion Ohio State Buckeyes made three changes in his first-string team yesterday. Bud Kessler, a veteran, was put in at left end, replacing Ward Wright. Tom Watson, a Freshman, replaced Dick Jackson at right end, and Russ Thomas moved into a tackle spot, replacing Freshman Sam Winters.

At Northwestern, Coach Lynn Waldorf used Bill Travers, a converted guard, at fullback, and Freshman Don Lase at quarterback with Dick Connors and Bruce Bairstow at the halfback positions as he tried to sift his preponderantly Freshman squad down to first team proportions.

Coach Ray Elliot of Illinois held a blocking and passing drill. At Wisconsin, Coach Harry Stuhldreier cut his squad to 44 players as he sought to determine just what 11 men he could depend on during the season.

Leg injuries to Freshman Tackles Jim Rehberger and Al Wahl slowed down Michigan's workouts as the Wolverines prepared for their opening game against Great Lakes Saturday.

Purdue plotted a defense for its opener with Marquette a week from Saturday, while Indiana held a two-hour intra-squad workout. Iowa opened its fall practice yesterday with 43 players reporting to Coach Clem Crowe.

Athletics Even Score With Warren G.C.

LEFTY SMITH WINS, 3-2; BOOSTS LOCAL VICTORIES UP TO 14

Athletics Post Impressive Win With Run In Final Frame

Once again hitting with the consistency which has won them 13 of their last 14 games, the Salem Athletics pounded the apple at the right time last night to defeat a difficult Warren Giant Negro team 3-2 here on a run in the seventh and final inning.

Four hits by the locals in the second frame scored the two runs which held away until Warren scored in the fifth, making it 2-1. A second Warren marker in the sixth tied things up and it looked like the game might go into darkness.

However, Pitcher Lefty Shields walked Gordy Scullion and Ray Stanley in the seventh when two were away and Steve Cibula's single scored the winning run.

Warren Scores
Warren's runs came on two hits and an error in the fifth and two more hits in the sixth.

Frank "Lefty" Smith held the hard-hitting Warren men to six hits. He walked none and fanned six batters.

Shields had more trouble. He walked five, fanned five and was tagged for nine hits.

Warren played errorless ball while Salem committed two miscues.

The locals met a strong Portage county All-Star team here at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Coach Carroll Widdoes reported the Columbiana boy had advised him that he was eligible for a Navy discharge after Sept. 15 and that he intended to return to the OSU campus.

Western Conference Commissioner Kenneth Wilson disclosed Fisher could join the squad if he received his discharge prior to Oct. 9, Widdoes said.

Fisher played with Bernie Biermans Iowa Seahawks in 1942. He currently is stationed at the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air base.

GAME AND HALF AS RACE GETS HOTTER

Washington Trims Cleveland 5-1 to Stay In Tight Pennant Race

BY JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Sam Braden's Cardinal farm system, shrouded to a handful of outposts and a smattering of talent, has turned up Lefty Art Lopatka to prove it still can produce a live one when the call for help is sounded.

With Billy Southworth's St. Louis gang struggling desperately to catch the front-running Chicago Cubs, who had won via the shutout route a few hours earlier, Lopatka was given his big league launching against the hard-hitting Brooklyn Dodgers in a two-night game.

The 25-year-old grad of the Columbus Red Birds justified the management's faith by subduing the Dodgers with four hits, 3-2, keeping the Cards 2½ games behind Chicago. A second game was rained out.

Hank Wyse made sure the Bruins wouldn't lose any ground by blanking the Phillies, 4-0, on nine hits. It was his first victory in a month. He had tried unsuccessfully since Aug. 12 to grab his 19th victory.

Cincinnati shaded New York, 4-3, in the other National league contest on successive homers by Frank McCormick and Hank Sauer. Boston and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

Washington picked up a half game on Detroit in the blazing American league scrap, slicing the Tigers' advantage to a game and a half, all on the losing side of the ledger.

Tribe Whipped
Roger Wolfe pitched and batted the Senators to a 5-1 triumph over Cleveland in an arduous game witnessed by General Jonathan M. Wainwright, the hero of Corregidor.

The knuckleball artist yielded only four hits in recording his 18th win and drove home three of the Washington scores with a bases-loaded double.

Detroit's crippled Tigers lost a heart breaking second game to Philadelphia, 3-2 in 16 innings after romping to a 7-4 decision in the opener behind Al Benton.

It has been a tough week for Steve O'Neill with Hank Greenberg and Eddie Mayo out of the lineup and Hal Newhouse's sore back forcing him to skip his regular turn. But yesterday's marathon nightcap was the toughest of all.

O'Neill gambled with Prince Henry Oana, the big Hawaiian up from Buffalo, and saw his choice justified as the recruit allowed only one single for 8 2/3 innings. Roberto Estalella tied it with a double and the same stocky Cuban finally broke it up with another two-baser in the 16th, scoring Mayo Smith.

The Yankees greeted Chicago's White Sox like a sure ticket to a first division berth, grabbing both games of a series opening double, 3-1 and 9-8, the second in 10 innings, to tighten their grasp on third place.

Sloppy Boston fielding let down Mike Ryba as the Red Sox bowed to St. Louis, 9-2. Bob Muncie handcuffed the home club with four blows in gaining his 12th victory against three setbacks.

City Series Knotted 1-1 In Both A and B Playoffs As Sinclair, Jay-Teen Win

Playoffs for the Class A and B city championships became more involved at Reilly stadium last night as a good-sized crowd of softball fans saw Sinclair reverse the process against Mullins and won 3-0 to knot the series 1-1 and the Jayteen switch things against the Columbians to win 3-2 after two extra frames.

The playoffs reach the climax—and the deciding one at that—at 7:30 p. m. tonight under the lights at Reilly when the four teams get together again for the settling contests.

Mutt Schaeffer, ace hurler for the Oilers, turned on the shut-out valve last night and limited the Factory men to four safeties—all singles—issued six walks and fanned four men.

He was in hot water, there can be no question about that, but he neatly pulled himself out to blank the losers and give his team a comeback chance at the title.

Schaeffer's game consisted of more than pitching powers. He led off with the first four-bagger of the series in the sixth inning to give the Oilers sixth first run and break a scoreless tie that had the fans on edge.

The other Oil runs came on singles by Gale Stewart and Dick Hahn, after which a fielder's choice and a walk loaded the bases. Lee Schaeffer's single scored Bob Umberger and Stewart.

Schaeffer's hottest moments on the mound were in the second and third innings. In the second he walked Wally Linder after Brother Mike Linder had led off with a single. After fanning Nello Balta for the first out Alec Simion made things warm by singling Mike Linder home, where he was thrown out by Shortstop Bob "Doggie" Scullion.

Marty Pauline, who hurled good ball for the manufacturers, fanned to end the inning.

In the third with two away, a pair of walks and a single loaded the sacks, but Wally Linder closed the inning by forcing a man at second.

Changing their pace somewhat by playing much smoother ball in the field, the Jay-Teen lads won out in the ninth inning after Tony Martinelli's triple had tied things for the Columbians in the seventh with two runs.

The Youth Center men collected two runs in the fourth on singles by Ray Snyder and Bob Dressel, followed by a triple by "Juicy" Karlis.

Martinelli's hit tied the count in the final and forced the game into extra innings.

The winning marker came in the ninth when Paul Ritchie singled. Bob Dressel doubled and Ritchie scored on a fielder's choice as Karlis was hitting.

Emelio Ciotti hurled seven-hit ball for the Irish, fanned none and walked three. Winner Linder, Bowman gave up five hits, walked four and whiffed five.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Mad Dogs and Wagging Tongues

The county had a "mad dog" scare last week. Phoebe Token's spaniel bit the postman, and he vowed that he was plenty mad about it.

But by the time the rumor got around, it wasn't the postman who was mad, it was the dog. And before the truth was learned, half the kids in the neighborhood had missed school, while their mothers nearly died of fright.

Wagging tongues can cause a lot of "mad dog" trouble. Like wagging tongues that gossip about our soldiers drinking too much around Army camps. It's just not true, as the government found out and told us. Milk and beer are among a soldier's favorite drinks—which is why we have the best behaved army in history. But those ugly rumors are bound to hurt morale and cause hard feeling.

From where I sit, wagging tongues can cause a heap more trouble than mad dogs.
